Announcing the release of the Marion Rosen Interviews Part I & II, March 12 & 19, 2008

For the first time, the complete 2008 interviews with Marion Rosen are available on DVD for the Rosen community. Marion covers a wide range of topics, with stories from her childhood, her early years as a bodyworker, leaving Germany, experiences in Sweden, travel to Berkeley, her career as a physical therapist, and the development of Rosen Method. Marion discusses her understanding of human transformation that has been built through 75 years as a somatic therapist and trainer.

In the interviews Marion also speaks quite personally about spirituality and her perspectives about life, love, pain, surrender, and God. These interviews are the most extensive ever filmed with Marion and include more than three hours of original footage of conversations in her home.
